

2010 Capital Club Call for Members To Serve On the Following Committees:

Arts Appreciation Committee

This is a new committee formed to serve the Memberships' interests in Classical or Contemporary Art. The Committee helps the Club Management with the planning and promotion of the following:

- Spring and Fall Dinner concerts at the Club
- Evenings at the Opera/Ballet/Show
- Art exhibitions at the Club
- Art Lectures at the Club
- Visits of art galleries for previews of new collections
- Book lectures and author series

Business Committee

The Business Committee serves the Membership's interest to develop business networking opportunities and educational business programs. The Committee helps the Club management with the planning and promotion of the following:

- Industry nights
- Business networking events
- CEO Luncheons
- Business lectures
- Business book lectures

Food & Wine Committee

The Food & Wine Committee serves the Membership's interests in learning about and enjoying wines, assisting Club management in developing food themes served at the Club as well as helping with the planning and promotion of the following:

- Guest Chef series
- Wine dinners and wine tastings
- Assist Club on the style of cuisines served
- Wine dinners/tastings' themes and frequency
- Hosting of wine dinners
- Advise management on Guest Chef Series, frequency and cuisine styles
- Assist management in developing Club Food & Beverage Traditions
- Hosting annual F&B Committee Cooking Night

Golf Committee

The Golf Committee serves the Memberships' interest in attending golf events for fun, competition and business networking. The Committee helps the Club management with the planning and promotion of the following:

- ClubCorp Annual Qualifier Tournament (Ex-Pinehurst, held at the Homestead in 2010)
- Club Invitational. Member Guest tournament
- Club Championship
- Golfing Fridays- Social Golf Gatherings
- Any other golf events Promote golf tournaments to fellow members
- Review, enforcement and refereeing at Golf Tournaments
- Review of golf handicaps

Legacy Committee

Legacy Members are Members' Children who join the Club under their own name after reaching the age of 21 years. The Legacy Committee serves the Legacy membership's interests as well as helping the Club management in planning and promoting the following:

- Legacy Club social networking events
- Legacy club continuing education series and business lectures
- Development of the Legacy Membership
- Legacy Club outings and sports events.

Membership Committee

The Membership Committee serves to identify potential Club members and to assist Club management in developing membership benefits programs. The Committee also assists Club Management with the following:

- Hosting of New Member's Receptions
- Development of Membership Benefits
- Identification of individuals and corporations for nomination to the Membership
- Proposal and review of New Affiliate Club programs
- Review of Club By-Laws and Membership schedules

Social Committee

The Social Committee serves the Membership interest to develop social networking opportunities as well as fun gatherings to foster club camaraderie. The Committee helps the Club management with the planning and promotion of the following:

- International/Ambassadors Member's Parties
- Social networking events
- Club Anniversary party theme & contents
- Charity/Fundraiser events

I am interested to serve on the following Committee (please chose only 1):

Arts Appreciation	___	Business	___
Food & Beverage	___	Golf	___
Legacy	___	Membership	___
Social	___

The reasons I would like to serve on this Committee are as follows:

Club Committee By-Laws are available on the club website (www.capitalclub.com) under the Committee icon and are also available at Club 50th Floor lobby under the Board of Governors and at the Athletic Center Bulletin board next to Gym entrance.

Name: _____

Membership No.: _____

Email address: _____

Mobile: _____

Signature: _____

Members' applications to serve on the Club Committees will be reviewed at the March Board of Governors meeting. Upon approval by the Board of Governors, each Committee Member will receive an invitation to attend their respective Committee meetings. Committee Meeting dates are published on the club website, on the Athletic Center bulletin board and 50th Floor lobby credenza under Board of Governors.

Please fill out and email back to: communication@thecapitalclub.com or fax to 8486-3909 on or before March 1, 2010. Should you have any questions, please call Kim Todd on (10) 8486-2225 Ext: 263 or Bertrand Petton on Ext: 388.